Afterword

Thank you very much for purchasing "Ookami papa ha hitsuji wo zurashite yatte kuru".

This time I wanted to put in cute illustrations between the chapters to my afterword actually got pulished in the book (lol)

Even though I went out of my way to procure this page, now that it's time to write, I have no idea what to say.

Since I have the opportunity allow me to explain about the character names.

Maki Yuuto -> I wanted him to be a man with a clear and kind heart.

Hagiwara Tatsumi -> Like the ocean, I wanted him to have a deep an forgiving heart.

Maki Ritsu->No matter what happens, I wanted you to grow and be able to judge what is right and wrong.

(Translators notes all of them use kanji from their first names in the description)

Or so that was my thought process when I made them. I'd be very happy if the readers were able to fall in love with them as much as I have

The page is coming to an end, but I would like to take you for taking time out of your day to read this book.

Thank you so much to the publishers, editors, and design team that helped me though this journey I have been in your care.

And thank you for all the feedback and letters while this piece was published in the magazine. They were a great inspiration to me

I would like to thank you all from the bottom on my heart
